

The Holocaust in the Curriculum

A Brief Application Guide

Thank you for your interest in applying for the MA module 'The Holocaust in the Curriculum'. Before you complete the application form please read the notes on the application sections below to make sure your application shows how you meet the criteria for this module.

Educational Background

- 1) In this section you will need to demonstrate that you meet UCL's criteria for study at post-graduate level. This includes a good undergraduate degree and fluency in English.

Please see the following pages for further details on

- Master's programme requirements <http://www.ucl.ac.uk/prospective-students/graduate/taught/requirements>
- English language requirements <http://www.ucl.ac.uk/prospective-students/undergraduate/application/requirements/english-requirements>

- 2) Also in this section you need to demonstrate that you have Qualified Teacher Status which is a requirement for this particular module.

Work Experience

- 1) In this section please describe your teaching experience of the Holocaust to-date. To qualify for this module you need to demonstrate some experience of teaching the Holocaust in an English secondary school. As part of the funding for the module we are required to ensure that what you learn will have an impact in the classroom, so we are also interested to know more about under what circumstances you will be teaching about the Holocaust in school(s) in the future and any relevant career plans you may have
- 2) Please also mention in this section which of our (UCL Centre for Holocaust Education) CPD sessions you have attended or are planning to attend before the start of the module.

Supporting Statement

- 1) Please explain why you want to study this module and why you believe teaching about the Holocaust is important.

If anything is unclear or you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact us at holocaust@ucl.ac.uk.

Please submit your application by February 2018 (Final deadline tbc) either via e-mail to holocaust@ucl.ac.uk or via post to
